

APG Senior Leadership Cohort Program 2010-2011 Information for the Community-based Project

Project Title
APG Army Volunteer Corps
Accountable Executive (Sponsor)
Mr. Conrad Whyne
What is the Vision for the Project?
Establish APG Army Volunteer Corps as the premier DoD program. Providing unfailing support to APG and surrounding communities while building relationships/networks across APG organizations that result in improved work relationships.
What mission will be achieved?
Increase Volunteer Corps participation and projects across APG.
How it supports the APG Vision
Build and improve the APG community through collaborative interaction between commands.
Measure of Success (what success looks like and how it is measured)
Increased participation by individuals and/or commands.
Scope Statement
Work with the existing APG Volunteer Corps Program to improve its mission effectiveness.
What is the Strategy for the Project?
Meet with existing APG VC Program lead, evaluate its processes and effectiveness, while in a collaborative manner develop a strategy to expand the command community participation in the program.
Major Achievements or Deliverables
Deliverables: Present the evaluation and provide recommendations to improve command/community participation in the APG VC. Achievement: Implementation of any one of the recommendations.
Cohort Participant (Project Leader) Authority and Responsibilities:
Leader will guide and steer the team, while focused on mission completion and maximum participation by various APG tenant commands.
Key Stakeholders needed to Succeed
Name of Person	Name of Organization
Col. Ortiz / MG Justice	APG Garrison Cmdr/APG Senior Mission Cmdr
Potential Leadership Growth Opportunities for the Cohort Participant
Team leadership and networking various commands.
Cohort 1 Advisor
Joseph Cartelli
Faculty Team Advisor
Bob Devlin

Approvals:

Signature of Organizational SES Sponsor

Date: 7 June

Signature of Project Manager

Date: _____